

Macon County

Press Release
For Immediate Release
Macon County Emergency Management
Warren Cabe, Director
104 East Main Street
Franklin, NC 28734
January 29, 2016

Macon County has been notified that damages that occurred as a result of severe weather during the Christmas holidays will not be eligible for assistance through the Individual Assistance Program of the North Carolina Department of Public Safety. Although the damages that occurred were overall a significant amount, there were not at least 25 primary homes, businesses or other eligible institutions that sustained uninsured major damage to request additional assistance.